

Christmas in Minneapolis

Wicked Fun in the Twin Cities

December 6 and 7, 2008

■ WICKED at the Orpheum theatre

Long before that girl from Kansas arrives in Munchkinland, two girls meet in the land of Oz. One—born with emerald green skin—is smart, fiery and misunderstood. The other is beautiful, ambitious and very popular. How these two grow to become the Wicked Witch of the West and Glinda the Good Witch makes for “the most completely satisfying new musical in a long time” (USA Today).

■ A CHRISTMAS CAROL at The Guthrie

This award-winning Guthrie Theatre’s look at a timeless holiday tale infuses Dickens’ yuletide classic with a spirit that goes straight to the heart. The glorious music of Christmas past and present flows through this holiday favorite, inviting you to follow Ebenezer Scrooge on his soul-searching journey and renew your own holiday spirit.

■ A DON’T HUG ME CHRISTMAS CAROL at Hennepin Stages

Quickly becoming a Christmas classic, this satirical look at Midwestern life follows Gunner’s journey as he’s visited by three Norwegian ghosts in discovering the true meaning of Christmas. Very Funny. Very Entertaining.

■ Tour of The Guthrie Theatre

Called “a 21st century dream factory” by Time Magazine, the new Guthrie boasts three stages, a full-service restaurant, pre-show dining, numerous bars and some of the best views of Minneapolis to be found in the city.

■ Tour of The Minneapolis Institute of Art

Absolutely Fabulous: Highlights of the Institute’s Collection

View celebrated works in the MIA’s world-renowned collections, from an Egyptian mummy to modern painting and sculpture. Whether you’re new to the museum or have been visiting for many years, see popular favorites and discover new favorites.

■ Luxurious Accommodations at The Depot

National Register of Historic Places For nearly seven decades, family members and loved ones stood at the atrium of the Depot and waved to passengers boarding the trains of the Milwaukee Road line. Today it serves as a Marriott Renaissance Hotel in the hub of the river district.
