■ A Christmas Carol at The Goodman Theatre

This award-winning Goodman Theatre's look at a timeless holiday tale infuses Dickens' yuletide classic with a spirit that goes straight to the heart. The glorious music of Christmas past and present flows through this holiday favorite, inviting you to follow Ebenezer Scrooge on his soul-searching journey and renew your own holiday spirit.

■ Second City Improvisational Theatre

Second City Improvisational Theatre began in Chicago in the late 1950's. The format of short sketch comedy in cabaret style seating has influenced shows like Saturday Night Live, as well as fed the NBC classic many of its stars. Second City was the fertile ground for countless comedians who reached international recognition. From the early days of Alan Arkin and Joan Rivers to more recently Tina Fey and Steve Carell with John Belushi, Chris Farley, and Mike Myers in between.
