Swingin' on the Prairie

October 3 - 5, 2008

■ Little House on the Prairie at The Guthrie Theatre

Based on Laura Ingalls Wilder's beloved "Little House" books, this world premiere musical centers on the independent spirit of the teenager Laura, the family's settlement in DeSmet, South Dakota, and the hardships and joys faced by a family in a pioneer community.

■ Swing at Chanhassen Dinner Theatre

Jump'n Jivin' Broadway Sensation! "Two thirds rhythm and one third soul." That's how Fats Waller defined the uniquely American form of popular music and dance known as "swing."
This enthralling song-and-dance show makes it abundantly clear, swing was never a time or place - it has always been a state of mind! Dinner and Show!

■ Tour of The Guthrie Theatre

Called "a 21st century dream factory" by Time Magazine, the new Guthrie boasts three stages, a full-service restaurant, pre-show dining, numerous bars and some of the best views of Minneapolis to be found in the city.

■ Tour of The Minneapolis Institute of Art

Absolutely Fabulous: Highlights of the Institute's Collection
View celebrated works in the MIA's world-renowned collections, from an Egyptian mummy to modern painting and sculpture. Whether you're new to the museum or have been visiting for many years, see popular favorites and discover new favorites.

■ Luxurious Accommodations at The Depot

National Register of Historic Places For nearly seven decades, family members and loved ones stood at the atrium of the Depot and waved to passengers boarding the trains of the Milwaukee Road line. Today it serves as a Marriott Renaissance Hotel in the hub of the river district.

■ Dinner at Old Spaghetti Factory

The Old Spaghetti Factory is an international restaurant company serving more than 10 million customers annually. For good reasons; it's pasta, and it's good!
